Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
[GEN. (DR) V. K. SINGH (RETD)]

(a) Yes.

(b) & (c) During the visit of Vice President Shri Hamid Ansari to Rwanda from February 19-21, 2017, the following agreements were signed between India and Rwanda:

- (i) Agreement for Bilateral Air Services – The Air Services Agreement between India and Rwanda has the potential to spur greater trade, investment, tourism and cultural exchange, in tune with the developments in the civil aviation sector. This enables environment for enhanced and seamless connectivity, while providing commercial opportunities to the carriers of both the sides ensuring greater safety and security.
- (ii) Memorandum of Understanding for setting up of an Entrepreneurship Development Centre in Rwanda: Under the MOU, Government of India is assisting the Republic of Rwanda to set up an Entrepreneurship Development Centre (EDC) in Kigali, Rwanda, and provide overall technical assistance as a grant.
- (iii) Agreement for exemption of visa for diplomatic and official passports: This Agreement will facilitate visa-free travel and stay of diplomatic and official passport holders of both the countries up to 90 days in any period of 365 days.
